

June 6, 2001 | Cupertino, California Since 1947

METROACTIVE

CLASSIFIEDS

ADVERTISING

ARCHIVES

SEARCH

ABOUT US

Community

Community Briefs

De Anza hosts discussion on Japanese-American soldiers

De Anza College, the Military Intelligence Service Association of Northern California, the National Japanese American Historical Society, and Media Bridge, Inc., have joined together to offer a historical examination of the role American soldiers of Japanese descent played in information gathering during the Pacific campaign of World War II. The program, entitled Uncommon Courage: Patriotism and "Civil Liberties," will address the moral and civil issues faced by the servicemen, who helped the U.S. Army collect information while their families were imprisoned in internment camps in their own country. Congressman Mike Honda will appear as the guest speaker at the event, which will take place at De Anza College on Saturday, June 16 at 3 p.m. Admission is free, and the public is welcome.

Osteoporosis Assessment

Healthtech Mobile Services, a mobile health care provider under contract with Raley's, Bel Air and Nob Hill stores, will be offering osteoporosis risk assessment on June 13 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Cupertino Nob Hill store, 1179 S. De Anza Blvd. The exam is done with an ultrasound machine and is painless. The cost is $25 and requires the removal of one sock. The testing will be done at the pharmacy and the technician will take a lunch break from 1 to 2

Cover Story

National Center for Equine Facilitated Therapy helps disabled children build muscles

News

News Briefs

CCS gets \$50,000 from Asian community

Summit outlines school districts' problems

Sheriff's Report

Letters & Opinions

Carl Heintze: Ghosts of Vietnam continue to haunt U.S.

Community

Community Briefs

Stevens Creek Elementary students hold circus

Pet of the Week

Gardening

Adding new soil to potted plants

Seniors

Safety tips for older drivers

Sports

Sports Briefs

High school track and field results

p.m.

Joseph B. Anderson Jr. speaks at De Anza College

Joseph B. Anderson, Jr., a decorated military officer and successful CEO at several major corporations, will be a featured speaker on June 7 at an afternoon open forum and an evening commencement ceremony at De Anza College. At 2:30 p.m. in Conference Room B of the Campus Center, Anderson will speak on his life and his interest in higher education, answer questions and show "The Anderson Platoon," a highly acclaimed, award-winning documentary about the infantry platoon he commanded during the Vietnam War. The public is invited to attend the free forum.

Anderson will be the keynote speaker at the college's 14th Annual Student Transfer Celebration, from 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the same location. His keynote address will be "The Importance of Education in Terms of Societal Changes."

Call Thelma Redmon at 408.864.5667.

Discernment workshop held at Marianist Center

The Marianist Center of Cupertino will host Unity Minister Susan Burnett-Hampson, who will lead an overnight workshop on the practice of discernment, beginning at 5 p.m. June 7 and ending at 4 p.m. on June 8. The workshop will offer a practical, reflective and prayerful learning adventure into the practice of discernment. Cost for the workshop is $110, and includes a private room, semi-private bath and meals. Advance registration is required. Call 408.253.6279.

Annual spring guitar concert

The students of the Longay Guitar Center will present their 15th Annual Spring Concert on June 9 at 3 p.m. at St. Jude's Episcopal Church, McClellan Road at Stelling, Cupertino. The performance will feature works of Bach, Mozart, Giuliani and other composers of classical guitar. Admission to the concert is free. Call 408.343.0933.

Calendar

Lectures, readings, auditions, sports & recreation, announcements, theater & arts, kids' stuff, clubs, public meetings...

Feedback

Something to say?

Copyright © SVCN, Inc. Maintained by Boulevards New Media.